

Mysteries

Yeah Yeah Yeahs

This is probably my favourite song off the new album, nice chunky chords and solid

This is most of the song, it gets a bit mental at the end.

Intro: (strumming is simple up and down quite quickly all the time (halfbeats i think)for intro and verses)

(/some crazy sounding slide)

Verse 3:

A E D E A
Well I don t even know what it s like not to go back to you
A E D E A
I don t even know who I like less

A B D3 B E5 (then our verse A E D E A once more)
You or me, you or me, you or me ooh

(Now it gets really mental and i dont have a clue, at best guesst it uses barred A (at 5th fret of E), barred D and E on the A string and that really high note/chord is something like xx15151515. (But i think)

(These might be barred on the A string played as normal major barres)

B D3 B E5
Well it s anyone s, anyone s guess
B D3 E5
It s anyone s, anyone s guess

(and then)
