

A Little While
Yellow Days

[Intro] G#m A#m

G#m A#m

Broken by the love

G#m

This hurt divides itself

A#m

G#m

Decided that kissing you is bad for my health

A#m

So I m gonna ride

G#m

I m going the other way

A#m

I would ve told you why

G#m

If there was any space for me

A#m

To say, to say

D#m

A#m

Oh don t you see it now?

G#m

A#m

I m staying for a little while

D#m

A#m

Oh don t you see it now?

G#m

A#m

I m staying for a little while

I looked you right in your eye

And asked you why it has to be this way

I don t know

And to my suprise, you did say

This is just you and I babe

You and I babe

Oh don t you see it now?

I m staying for a little while

Oh don t you see it now?

I m staying for a little while

So I m gonna ride

I m going the other way

I would ve told you why

If there was any space for me

To say, to say

Oh don t you see it now?
I m staying for a little while
Oh don t you see it now?
I m staying for a little while
