10.) Dear Bobbie

by the keyboards, you can do it using the guitar though... It's something like this:

G|----9---7---5---4-2-4----

Dear Bobbie,

(C, Em)

Do you remember when you were young and very pretty? I do, I remember pleated skirts, black and white saddle shoes. Do you remember dancing that night?
I do, I still think of you when we dance, although we cant jitterbug as we did then.

Verse 1:

C Am
Do you remember when
C
How long has it been?
Am F
1945 you opened my blue eyes
G
To see a whole new life
C
Do you remember when
Am
I told you this that night,
C
That if you re by my side
Am
When everyday begins
F
I ll fall for you again
G
I made a promise when
C
I told you this that night

Chorus:

F
And I ll be fine
C G Am
Cause when I die, then I die loving you
C F
It s alright, I ll be fine
C G Am
Cause when I die then I die loving you
Dm F (C,Em)
Loving you, loving you

(C, Em)

Do you remember the times we would give up on each other and get back together, long.

Do you remember? I do.

Verse 2:

C Am
Life has led us here

C
Together all these years

Am
This house that we have made

F
Holds twenty-thousand days

G
And memories we ve saved

C
Since life has lead us here

(Repeat Chorus)

Interlude: C-Em-C-Em-F-G

Verse 3:

C(hold)                      Am(hold)
 I m coming home to you
                                  C(hold)

 Resting in my chair
                                  F(hold)
 See you standing there
                                  G(hold)
 The silver in your hair
                                  C
 I m coming home to you
                                  Am    C
 When I lay tonight, when I close my eyes
                                  Am
 I know the sun will rise
                                  F
 Here the next life
                                  G    C
