Intro: F--Em--C7--F--Fm--F#M9--F---G---

Verse 1:

A

Jimmy wasn't

A7

really popular

D

He had a couple of

D7

friends back home

F

Sooner or later they're

G

all getting out

C

So he had to join up alone

A

He was dreaming
A7
of the Ivy League
Since he was
D D7
only 3 feet tall
F
Get the hell out
G
of Jersey and then
C
He would never look back at all

Chorus:

F
And then you hear them
Em
say That miles away
C7
We lost another one
F
that we sent with a gun
Fm
They re gonna miss him
F#M7
he was two weeks from twenty
F
And there s still no shame
G
From the man to blame

Verse 2:

A Jimmy never had A7
a reason to stay Cause all the
D D7
factories shut down
F
All he had was
G a line for his name
C
So he could sign away
his right to be proud
A
He tried to kiss her
A7
on the way out the door

D

But she just put her

D7

little hand on his face

F

I don't understand why

G

you're leaving she said

C

But I hope you're

C7

gonna ask me to wait

(Repeat Chorus)

Interlude: Am---F x2 Bb--Bbm--F-C/E-Dm--Gm--C7

Bridge:

F(hold)

Jimmy's mother went

G(hold)

to Capitol Hill

Em(hold)

So she could fill her

Am G

heart up with joy

Dm(hold)

Maybe shake a few

G(hold)

hands while she's there

Em(hold)

And tell him thank you

Am G

sir for taking my boy

(Repeat Chorus)

Outro:

F

still no shame

G

F

and We're all to blame

G

We're all to blame

F

We're all to blame

G

We're all to blame

F G F G F G F G F(hold)

We re all to blame
