Intro: F--Em--C7--F--Fm--F#M9--F---G---

Verse 1:

B Jimmy wasn't B7
really popular
 E
He had a couple of E7
friends back home
G
Sooner or later they re
A
all getting out
 D
So he had to join up alone
B

He was dreaming
B7
of the Ivy League
Since he was

E E7
only 3 feet tall

G
Get the hell out
A
of Jersey and then

D
He would never look back at all

Chorus:

G
And then you hear them

F#m
say That miles away

D7
We lost another one

G
that we sent with a gun

Gm
They re gonna miss him

G#M7
he was two weeks from twenty

G
And there s still no shame

A
From the man to blame

Verse 2:

B Jimmy never had

B7
a reason to stay Cause all the

E E7
factories shut down

G
All he had was

A
a line for his name

D
So he could sign away
his right to be proud

B
He tried to kiss her

B7
on the way out the door

E

But she just put her

E7

little hand on his face

G

I don't understand why

A

you're leaving she said

D

But I hope you're

D7

gonna ask me to wait

(Repeat Chorus)

Interlude: Am---F x2 Bb--Bbm--F-C/E-Dm--Gm--C7

Bridge:

G(hold)

Jimmy's mother went

A(hold)

to Capitol Hill

F#m(hold)

So she could fill her

Bm A

heart up with joy

Em(hold)

Maybe shake a few

A(hold)

hands while she's there

F#m(hold)

And tell him thank you

Bm A

sir for taking my boy

(Repeat Chorus)

Outro:

G

still no shame

A

G

and We're all to blame

A

We're all to blame

G

We're all to blame

A

We're all to blame

G A G A G A G A G(hold)

We re all to blame
