Gotta Knock A Little Harder
Yoko Kanno

G   A   F   C   G->C

G
Happiness is just a word to me
D#   F
And it might have meant a thing or two
                         C
If I d known the difference

G
Emptiness, a lonely parody
D#   F
And my life, another smokin gun
                       C
A sign of my indifference

D#
Always keepin safe inside
         F   C
Where no one ever had a chance
                    G
To penetrate a break in

D#
Let me tell you some have tried
         F   C
But I would slam the door so tight
                    G
That they could never get in

        [G -> C -> G -> C]

G
Kept my cool under lock and key
D#   F
And I never shed a tear
                       C
Another sign of my condidtion

G
Fear of love or bitter vanity
D#   F

```
That kept me on the run
                     C
The main events at my confession

D#
I kept a chain upon my door
        F                    C
That would shake the shame of Cain
               G
Into a blind submission

D#
The burning ghost without a name
       F                 C
Was calling all the same
                 G
But I wouldn t listen

G
The longer I d stall
The further I d crawl
    A
The further I d crawl
The harder I d fall
         F    C         G
I was crawlin  into the fire

G
The more that I saw
The further I d fall
The further I d fall
The lower I d crawl
        F    C         G
I kept fallin  into the fire

       [ G -> C -> G -> C ]

G
Suddenly it occurred to me
D#                            F
The reason for the run and hide
                    C
Had totaled my existnce

G
Everything left on the other side
```

D#   F
Could never be much worse that this
                        C
But could I go the distance

D#
I faced the door and all my shame
F   C
Tearin off each piece of chain
                        G
Until they all were broken

D#
But no matter how I tried
F   C
The other side was licked so tight
                       G
That door it wouldn t open

G
Gave it all that I got
And started to knock
Shouted for someone
To open the lock
       F   C   G
I just gotta get through the door

G
And the more that I knocked
The hotter I got
The hotter I got
The harder I d knock
       F   C   G
I just gotta break through the door

G
Gotta knock a little harder
Gotta knock a little harder
A
Gotta knock a little harder
  F   C   G
Break through the door
