

At The End Of The Day
Yonder Mountain String Band

Tabbed by AJ C.

Key: E minor

Intro x4: G (down then up) D C D G

C G
Many times I ve been out on the cold lonely road
C D G
My heart full of sorrow and pain
C G
And I sing an old familiar song of the place that I belong
C D G
When my mind starts to think of home again

Chorus:

C G
So many miles and so many roads
D G
And people who don t even know my name
C G
So many times I ve looked to western skies
D
Nowhere I go is quite the same
C D
As that sweet home waiting for me
(intro riff x4) G D C D G
At the end of the day

C G
Now my feet grow tired and the wind, it grows wild
C D G
And the road never seems to end
C G
And my mind, it races on from the sunlight, she is gone
C D G
Thoughts of old start to fill my head

[Chorus]

C G
And it s too much confusion, too many lies
D G
Too many times my heart has been broken right in two
C G
I ve shed too many tears thinkin about those times
D
Cried too many rivers over you

Intro Riff x4

C G
Now the light up ahead it means that I am near

C D G
You can smell the wood smoke in the air

C G
And when I go back out again and I long to return to

C D G
My old home, I know she ll be there

[Chorus]
