Enjoy!

Intro: F Dm C F (x2)

F C
I had a girl in New Orleans
Bb F
Belle Parker was her name
F C
She d hold me down and tell me
Bb C
Everything s gonna be alright

Dm C
Preached to me of blue skies,
Dm C C
Silver linings through the rain
Dm Bb C
And if I ever needed anyone to blame...

Chorus:

F C
Oh Blame time, daddy
Bb F
Blame the rain
F C Bb C
Safe but somehow, time s the same
Dm C Bb C
Tell me anything, Just tell me loud
F C Bb F
Blame time, daddy, blame the rain

Repeat intro riff: F Dm C F (x2)

Verse 2:

The velvet queen of New Orleans
Belle Parker was her name
She d walk the town,
with a drink or two and the southern night
Louisiana sunshine,

Mississippi rain
And if I ever needed anyone to blame...

(Chorus)

(Instrumental Verse)

She d love to talk, and I d let her,
Belle Parker was her name
She d come around again, and again, and again
I m waiting for the sunshine
And sitting through the rain
And If I ever needed anyone to blame...
