[Verse 1]

Sometimes I ve won, sometimes i ve lost
Somtimes I ve walked away before the dice were tossed
It s not that I chose to be a gamblin man
But you re not left with many options walkin roads that never end
And I d love to imagine that there s some place for me
At the end of this long, lonely road
I keep tryin my best, I sure could use a little rest
And some help findin my way home

[Verse 2]

I m not the best, that s ever been
Long ago I vowed I d find the light I lost back then
And you think that you d be better all alone
When there s noone there who loves you and no place to call home
Well I m growin tired of this search for my soul, with
All of these rocks in the road
I keep tryin my best, sure could use a little rest
And some help findin my way home

[Verse 3]

A life like mine, must be reasons why
So I shouted all the names I knew for God up to the sky
And I listen for his answer every day

But I grow worried by the waitin , he should know just what to say
I d love to imagine that there s some place for me
At the end of this long lonely road
I keep tryin my best, sure could use a little rest
And some help findin my way home

[Bridge]

Well I ve had friends, they ve come and gone
And I ve seen love shine like a sunset & last about as long
In the end we re all walkin different roads
But we re lookin for the same signs, the ones that lead us home

[Verse 4]

Sometimes I ve won, sometimes I ve lost
Sometimes I ve walked away before the dice were tossed
It s not that I chose to be a ramblin man
But I see bright lights in the distance and this road it never ends
And I d love to imagine that theres some place for me
At the end of this long, lonely road
I keep tryin my best, sure could use a little rest
And some help findin my way home

[Outro]

I keep tryin my best, sure could use a little rest
And some help findin my way home
