

Sorrow Is A Highway
Yonder Mountain String Band

Tabbed by AJ C.
Key E minor

This is a pretty number off Town by Town. It s fairly simple. I am going by the album version since I have not heard them play it live.

Intro:

Em G C D G

Verse 1:

G

My heart is like the white line

C D C D G

Divided, separated in these feelings over you

G

My mind, it is also like the white line when without a bassist,

C D C D G walk down G G/F# G/F

Endlessly searching, a man without a clue

Chorus:

Em G D

You ve got me thinking there s a fire down below

C G D G

Round and round in circles is as far as I can go

C G G/F# Em

Same old repetition, feeling up and down again

G C D*

Sorrow is a highway

C D G

It never seems to end

Jam 1: verse chords

Verse 2:

G

Another day, it is ending

C D

I feel my feet upon the ground

C D G

And know they walk alone

G

What do I care now though if another day is ending

C D C D G

The days will end until my name is carved in stone alone

[Chorus]

Jam 2: Verse chords x2
Chorus chords

Verse 3:

G
The time has come for leavin
 C D C D G
The time to fall away like the pedals leave the rose
G
But what good does this leavin
 C D
I can still hear my heart breakin
 C D G
the sound it never goes

[Chorus]

C G G/F# Em
The same old repetition feelin up and down again
G C D
Sorry is a highway
 C D G
It never seems to end

Outro: Intro chords

*The riff played runs down G Aeolian starting at A on the 3rd string after the D chord. I just mess around with it, Adam is too fast.
