

Winds O Wyoming
Yonder Mountain String Band

Tabbed by: AJ C.

Title: Winds O Wyoming
Artist: Yonder Mountain String Band

Key: G major

Intro riff: x2

There s a couple different ways to play this, it don t matta
you can either hammer on instead of sliding up
I like to play it like this:

```
e|-----|
b|-----|
g|-----|
d|-----2-2/4-2-----|
a|---3---5-5/7-5-3-5-----5-3--5-5/7-5-3-5--|
E|-----|
```

Verse:

```
D          G          D
To old cowboys the wind often whispers
D          C
Sweet reminders of where they belong
      D      C      G      G      D
On the back of a horse in a worn-out saddle
C          D
Singin a sweet country song
C          D
Singin a sweet country song
```

Intro riff: x2

```
D          G          D
To old cowboys the wind often whispers
D          C
Some remember the right and the wrong
      D      C      G      G      D
Trust a good wind and gun, don t be stupid, cause a
C          D
Bad wind is wicked and strong
      C          D
A bad wind is wicked and strong
```

Chorus:

```
D          G          D
And those big winds still blow across Wyoming

Bm F#m G
 To old cowboys, it s all they ve ever known
D G D
 How those big winds still blow across Wyoming
D C D
 From Cheyenne clear to Yellowstone
D C D
 From Cheyenne clear to Yellowstone

solo:
 messes around riff at first, just listen
 G diatonic is played
 play chorus chords over banjo solo

D G D
 To old cowboys the wind often whispers
D C
 Son, remember the sweet bye and bye
D C G G D
 Remember the day cause there s times a comin
C D
 They ll be no place left for you and I
C D
 They ll be no place left for you and I

Chorus

End on:
D C C G D

Thanks much
