

Always Attract
You Me At Six

[Verse]

C Am
If it hurts this much,
C
Then it must be love,
Am
And it s a lottery,
C
I can t wait to draw your name.
Am
Oh I m trying to get to you,
C
But time isn t on my side,
Am
if the truths the worst I could do,
F
then I guess that I have lied.
G
Keeping me awake,
Am
It s been like this now for days,
C
My heart is out at sea,
F
My head all over the place,
G
I m losing sense of time,
Am
And everything tastes the same,
C
I ll be home in a day,
I fear that s a month too late.

[Chorus]

C G
That night I slept,
Am G F
On your side of the bed so,
C G
It was ready when you got home,
C G C G
We re like noughts and crosses in that
F C G
Opposites always attract.

[Verse]

C Am

You've taken me to the top,

C

And let me fall back south

Am

You've had me at the top of the pile,

C

And then had me kissing the ground

Am

We've heard and seen it all,

C

No one's talked us out,

Am

The problems that have come

F

Haven't yet torn us down.

G

Am

Am I keeping you awake, if I am then just say,

C

F

You can make your own decisions; you can make your own mistakes,

G

Am

I'll live and let die all the promises you made,

C

But if you lie another time, it'll be a lie that's too late.

[Chorus]

C

G

That night I slept,

Am

G

F

On your side of the bed so,

C

G

It was ready when you got home,

C

G

C

G

We're like noughts and crosses in that

C

G

Opposites always attract.

C

G

You always have your way,

F

For now it's too soon for you to say,

C

Will we be always always?
