

Lived A Lie

You Me At Six

This is very rough work for acoustic chords. nothing too fancy :P

I follow the same rhythm as the song, so its like 3 down strokes of em, 3 down strokes of C/F and then play the G for 4 (loosely). sounds confusing but play whatever you think sounds best and feel free to use this to make your own better version :)

i do all down strums for the verse and then down down up up down up for the chorus.

chords:

	Em	C/F	G	G/D
E	--3-----3----	2-----3--
B	--3-----3----	2-----3--
G	--0-----0----	0-----2--
D	--2-----2----	0-----0--
A	--2-----3----	2-----0--
E	--0-----0----	3-----2--

	Em	C/F	G
Well, somebody told me
That I would be a dreamer for life	Em	C/F	G
Well, somebody told me	Em	C/F	G
I would never reach the other side.	Em	C/F	G

	Em	C/F	G
Well, you say old news
You cross your fingers and you re to lose	Em	C/F	G
What if I told you,	Em	C/F	G
That things will never improve.	Em	C/F	G

	G	D
And If I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side	Em	C/F
So I could burn out	D

Em C/F G

bright

Em C/F G

So I can burn,

Em C/F G

So I can burn.

The grass is always greener

Someone else's past is always cleaner

But I'm a believer

that there's a fool in all of us.

G D

And If I lived a lie

Em C/F G

Would someone meet me on the other side

D G

So I could burn out bright

Em

No, I don't really know where I must go

Em

No, I don't really know where I must go

G D

So, I lived a lie

G

For just tonight, tonight

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are believers

We are, we are

(i palm mute this chorus)

And If I lived a lie

Would someone meet me on the other side

So I could burn out bright

(then back to normal)

And If I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side
So I could burn out bright

No, I don't really know where I must go
No, I don't really know where I must go
So, I lived a lie
For just tonight
