Filled with repent.

This is your night with arms wide open,
I m the option you shouldn t have chosen,
Scared of the dark the door s wide open
This is a night you ll regret in the morning.

Loverboy, you played us up like toys,
Don t you feel bad, don t you feel bad?
Filled with repent.
If given the choice would you do it again?
Of course I would, of course I should,
Well I m your friend, friends with benefits.
