

Theres No Such Thing As Accidental Infidelity
You Me At Six

Capo: 1st Fret

Am

I ve got a question

C

Did you think that we would ever believe you?

Am

And I ve been out of rejection

C

The line you walk is getting thin, so thin

Am

Your green eyes are potent

C

And last night I know who you were with

F

And you re a snake in the grass

G

And always that has been

C

G

Go back home now and go back to sleep

Am

And we ll say, go back with someone else who

F

Who wants you more than me

Am

Just one more question

C

Why do you throw your words around town

Am

Like they answer nobody s questions?

C

All ears, your chase comes out at night

F

G

Oh, while the whistles cry, we re supposed to drop like flies

C

G

Go back home now and go back to sleep

Am

And we ll say, go back with someone else who

F

Who wants you more than me

Am C
Was it something I said, something I did
G
That made you destroy all we built?
Am C
And it was something you said, something you did
G F
That made me think that you were real

C G
Go back home now and go back to sleep
Am
And we ll say, go back with someone else who
G
Who wants you more than

Who wants you more than me

C G
Go back home now, go back to sleep
Am
And go back with anything
F
Cause I know you ll think of me

C G
Go back home now, go back to sleep
Am
Go back with anything
F
Cause I know you ll think of me

not too sure on the bridge but everything else sounds about right.
