Young Money

First tab! I thought about the song randomly today and figured hey let me try and out the chords. It s a G A D A G Bm pattern throughout the song. I started it off for so can get a feel for it. I put the chords over the chorus too. Also you may find that Em better than G. I just happened to like the way G worked overall. K Enjoy, let me what u think! Chantal.TE@gmail.com
