

God Made Man
Young the Giant

Intro: G C

G C
You never know the weight of your crimes
G C
But when all the gates have closed and you re tired
G C
You stand a while by the fire And it burns bright
G C
A while, a while, you sit quiet

G C
Inside you re so warm
G C
Your eyes open up
G C
To the sunrise To the sunrise
G C
Far from here

G C
G C
I never know the state that you re in
G C
It s obvious to climb in your skin
G C
But I know how to walk across
G C
When it s silent inside, it feels right
G C
Inside you re so warm
G C
Your eyes open up
G C
To the sunrise, to the sunrise
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
(God made man And his reason)
G C
