

The Messenger
Your Favorite Enemies

I've only transcribed the chorus. If anyone wants to build it up from there, go ahead.

Em

The spirit is over town

G

Waiting for me to hit the floor

Em

Bm

Blooming white sky for the voice of one calling tonight

Em

Tonight, fate is the red crown

G

The red crown around your door

Em

Bm

Time scattering the seeds of the morning daylight
