

Reason Why
Youth Brigade

intro: A D F C G

A D F C G
You look for a reason, there is no reason why
A D F C G
Nothing s ever simple when a little kid dies
A D F C G
The people search themselves to try & understand
A D F C G
Gun in a child s hands is death in the end

C D A
Add it up, struggle to get by
C D A
Had enough, there is no reason why
C D
Pointing fingers won t ease the pain
F G
And really whose to blame

A D
They seemed like nice boys
F C G
The neighbours always say
A D
No one ever had a clue
F C G
Life turns out this way
A D
It s easy to second guess
F C G
The parents & the schools
A D
Listen to the hollow cries
F C G
Now we need more rules

C D A
Add it up, struggle to get by
C D A
Had enough, there is no reason why
C D
Pointing fingers won t ease the pain
A
And really whose to blame

C D A

Is it all they know, listen

F C G D

A F C G D

How could children be so cruel?

A F C G D

No respect for our rules

A F C G D

Of God & Country & the schools

A G A G A G F

A D F C G

NRA says owning guns is an American tradition

A D F C G

One that they keep alive by buying politicians

A D F C G

Are we so stupid, or just desensitized

A D F C G

With a gun anyone can kill we re all equalized

C D A

Add it up, struggle to get by

C D A

Had enough, there is no reason why

C D

Pointing fingers won t ease the pain

A

And really whose to blame

C D A

Is it all they know

C D A

Is it all they know

C D A

Is it all they know

C D A

Is it all they know

C D A

Is it all they know

C D A

Is it all they know

C D A