Intro : C

C

God this is hard you ve had no sleep, you thought of nothing else for weeks

Am

G

You begin your lines, and fumble with your purse

C

It s been eating you and you don t know what to do

Am

G

And your lie, only made it worse

F

C

F

C

You can t expect him to understand, he s not a saint, he s just a man

Am

G

And you know, that you can t change what he did

F

C

F

C

But if you had 40 lives, you d get it right by the 39th,

Am

G

C

As it is, all that you could ask, all this will pass

C

God, you wish like hell, you hadn t done it and you tell

Am

G

Him, how much you regret it

C

But you re talking to yourself, you re as lonely and as desperate

Am

G

As a kettle boiling, with no there to get it

F

C

F

C

All the words you meant to say, hang in the air then float away

Am

G

And vanish into the end of a dying day

F

C

F

C

But if you had 40 lives, you d get it right by the 39th,

Am

G

C

As it is, all that you could ask, all this will pass

[Don t lie, ah ah ah]

F

C

F

C

And if only you hadn't stayed, and if only you'd been delayed

Am

G

And it's funny what a difference a minute makes

F
