

Acordesweb.com

Polka

Yves Klein Blue

-----Polka----Yves Klein Blue-----

tabbed by borck borck

(ja_._@hotmail.com)

This is only the chords that michael plays.

during the verse the Dbm chord is best played as it is during the intro

note the [] symbolise measures/bars.

i would play the normal F# like this

E-2
B-2
G-2
D-4
A-4
E-2

and the F#(2) like this

E-
B-11
G-11
D-11
A-9
E-

the normal E should be played like this

E-
B-9
G-9
D-9
A-7
E-

the E(2) like this

E-0
B-0
G-1
D-2
A-2
E-0

intro

```
e-----|
B---5---5---5---5---5---5---5-----|
G---6---6---6---6---6---6---6-----|
D---6---6---6---6---6---6---6-----|
A-4-----4-----4-----4-----4-----3--|
E-----4-----4-----4-----4-----4--6-----|
```

Verse

Dbm

Brother hold your head this way

Ab

And bustle to the front of the line

E

Ab

Coz if they catch your eyes before you get inside,

Dbm

Well you ll never be allowed

Dbm

People got a name for us

E

Ab

Coz we escape the strain of the days

F#

A

Oh we stretch in the side and bend in the middle,

Dbm

But we never ever break

Dbm

Dbm/Ab

A

E

But if you feel that way now

Dbm

Dbm/Ab

A

F#

Or if you feel so inclined

Dbm

F#(2)

E

A

Ab

Skip past the doors of boring forty-somethings and rise

Dbm

Dbm/Ab

A

E

Oh and if you wanna lose your frown

Dbm

Dbm/Ab

A

F#

Or your name or even your face

Dbm

F#(2)

E

A

Ab

Dbm

Lick up a dream that seemingly sings with whistling neon breath

It goes thru the same few chord progressions again then to the chorus which is instrumental

Chorus

[A D][E] [Dbm E][B
][E(2)] [Ab] [Ab] repeat.

Then back into the verse

