Natural Disaster Zac Brown Band

Capo 1.

[Verse 1]

Had lips like candy, hair flowing like water

Skin like velvet made the whole damn world slow down

She was a preachers daughter, never did what daddy taught her BmD A G D

And the rebel in her soul brought her to me

D

The river was cold and the river was wide

She flowed from the mountain, straight across the Great Divide

And her heart ran cold but her love runs deep

Shes fire on the mountain, wrecking everyone she meets

[Chorus 1]

Shes like rain when she rolls in but that sunshine in her thunder

Makes the loneliest heart wonder if the ride is worth the pain

Might not be storm clouds in sight, oh but don t you worry friend

Shes coming around the bend, shes holding lightning in both hands

[Verse 2]

(same as verse 1)

Lord please know its that time for me to go The river has me heart, shes the keeper of my soul On one side of the water, sweet everlasting grace The other side could end your life or steal your breath away

[Chorus 2]

D Shes like rain when she rolls in but that sunshine in her thunder D Makes the loneliest heart wonder if the ride is worth the pain Might not be storm clouds in sight, oh but don t you worry friend Shes coming around the bend, shes holding lightning in both hands [Fiddle Solo] [Bridge] F# Shes a natural disaster, shell tear the land in two BmShes running to be running cause its all she knows to do Α F# Shes a tumbleweed a-rolling, a river running wild D A hurricane a-blowing, shes the calm after the storm under an Appalachian sunset sky [Chorus 1] Shes like rain, she rolls in But there s sunshine in her thunder Shes coming around the bend Shes holding lightning in both hands
