

Historical

Zach Robinson

Verse

Em

I was walking on the beach

Am

When something good, came to me.

C D Em

The girl I was with I had met at the store.

Em

And I find it kind of nice.

Am

How nothing is as it seems.

C D Em

I sing my songs and I say well oh lord.

Chorus

F G

Its histerical and historical

Am E

What a marvelous life.

F G Am

Now that I ve found you, everything feels alright.

F G

You know we re floating forward through

Am E

and in and out of certain feelings for you.

F G Am

Let them just walk away, cuz tonight we ll be alright.

F G Am

Cuz by the end of the night, time will float just right.

Verse

Am - Em- C - D

Well at night, my heart, my heart well it turns blue.

I tend to give it up, up, up to you.

Em - Am - C - D - Em

You know that you deserve such a fine applause.

For all the love you ve spread along the way.

Baby know that I, just know that I.

I will take care of you through the night.

We ll go back and forth through these feelings all day.

Chorus

F G

Its histerical and historical

Am E

What a marvelous life.

F G Am

Now that I ve found you, everything feels alright.

F G
You know we re floating forward through
Am E
and in and out of certain feelings for you.
F G Am
Let them just walk away, cuz tonight we ll be alright.
F G Am
Cuz by the end of the night, time will float just right.

Bridge.

F G C- B/AM (020010) - Am
And well in the morning, we ll float real nice.
And in the evening, you know we ll be alright.
Said well in the afternoon, and in the afternoon.
I ll be calling you for some of that sweet sweet love.

CHORUS