

Historical

Zach Robinson

Verse

F#m

I was walking on the beach

Bm

When something good, came to me.

D E F#m

The girl I was with I had met at the store.

F#m

And I find it kind of nice.

Bm

How nothing is as it seems.

D E F#m

I sing my songs and I say well oh lord.

Chorus

G A

Its histerical and historical

Bm F#

What a marvelous life.

G A Bm

Now that I ve found you, everything feels alright.

G A

You know we re floating forward through

Bm F#

and in and out of certain feelings for you.

G A Bm

Let them just walk away, cuz tonight we ll be alright.

G A Bm

Cuz by the end of the night, time will float just right.

Verse

Bm - F#m- D - E

Well at night, my heart, my heart well it turns blue.

I tend to give it up, up, up to you.

F#m - Bm - D - E - F#m

You know that you deserve such a fine applause.

For all the love you ve spread along the way.

Baby know that I, just know that I.

I will take care of you through the night.

We ll go back and forth through these feelings all day.

Chorus

G A

Its histerical and historical

Bm F#

What a marvelous life.

G A Bm

Now that I ve found you, everything feels alright.

G

A

You know we re floating forward through

Bm

F#

and in and out of certain feelings for you.

G

A

Bm

Let them just walk away, cuz tonight we ll be alright.

G

A

Bm

Cuz by the end of the night, time will float just right.

Bridge.

G

A

D- C#/BM (020010) - Bm

And well in the morning, we ll float real nice.

And in the evening, you know we ll be alright.

Said well in the afternoon, and in the afternoon.

I ll be calling you for some of that sweet sweet love.

CHORUS