

Love Again
Zara Larsson

G D
I was lost, alone in the dark

Em C
broken up, falling apart

G D
burning out, no sign of a spark

Em C
but that s all, over now, over now

G D
So I ran, ran out of ground

Em C
It s like the earth was pulling me down

G D
A string of hope nowhere to be found

Em C
But that s all, over now, over now

D D
My luck has finally turned, my life s a brand new world

G C
Now I found someone who meets a milion lights

C
Who can jump like the stars in the sky

C C
and it feels like I m starting to love again

G C
Yeah I ve found someone who can make me shine so bright

C
Til I m raised to the greatest of heights

C C
And it feels like I m starting to love again

Just

play the same chords in the rest of the song. Thank you.
