intro: G

G C
I am drunk and on a ladder
Em D
Not the smartest way to start my night
Em D
You said I d conquer my vertigo
C D G
That was a lie, that was a lie, that was a lie

G C
And when we got up to the roof
G D
You opened a little flask of gin
Em D
Like idiots we both fell asleep there
C D G
Until the sun came up again

C D
I do the dumbest things for you
C Em D
Why do I do the dumbest things for you?
C Em
I almost broke my collar bone
Dsus4 D G
I didn t care, you were the most exciting thing I d ever known.

G C
We both went out to the party
G D
Down a long, great western road
Em D
You told the drunks I knew karate
C D G
That was a lie, that was a lie, that was a lie

G C
They chased us through the city center
G D
They chased us out to the east end
Em D
We had to hide behind the supermarket

C D G
 Until the sun came up again

C D
 I do the dumbest things for you

C Em D
 Why do I do the dumbest things for you?

C Em
 I would be safer on my own

Dsus4 D G
 I didn't care, you were the most exciting thing I'd ever known.

G C
 And we just missed the last bus home

Em
 So we walked it fueled by adrenaline

Em D
 And when I said I could do it all again

C D G
 That was a lie, that was a lie, that was a lie

G C
 Your plans to make it big and conquer

G D
 Would put Napoleon to shame

Em C
 I'm in a coma on the sofa

C D G
 Until the sun goes down again

C D
 I do the dumbest things for you

C Em D
 Why do I do the dumbest things for you?

C Em
 I would be safer on my own

Dsus4 D G
 I didn't care, you were the most exciting thing I'd ever known.
