Same Chords throughout

so sit and smile and laugh and make me happy let's spend the whole day, watching the freeway there s nothing i would rather do on saturday night then let my feelings smolder between your shoulders yeah oh don t you wanna be mine?

am i so easy to ignore?
 that you could shut the door?
 and leave me on the floor?
 i'm trying to find a precedent for all this mistreatment but it don t make no sense because you know all the right things to say and i would never understand them anyway we would make a wonderful world me and my spectacle girl.
