

Blue Eyes Blind

ZZ Ward

Hi :) this is my first submission so hopefully it s right. If you like it hit the 5 stars, thanks!

Also I like to change the E to E7 because I think it sounds nice, so maybe try that instead.

Capo 1 for original key

Bm G
I feel the moon hitting the blacktop,
A E
Just like a fuse, making the night so hot,
Bm G
Forget the truth until tomorrow,
A E
You ll be my Hughes, I ll be your Harlow,

Bm G
All I know is you stole my eyes,
A E
And was packaged to stone cause you put it down right,
Bm G
All I know is you pull me through,
A E
I don t wanna see nothing if I ain t seeing you,

Bm G
You are the yellow stars up in my silver sky,
A E
You are a ray, ray, you even make my blue eyes blind,
Bm G
All of the lights went down when you came with me,
A E
Now there s a million diamonds that I just can t see,

Bm G A
You, you, you,
E
You make my blue eyes blind,
Bm G A
You, you, you,
E
You make my blue eyes blind,

Bm G
You set me straight, just like an arrow,
A E
Until we lay, caught in the afterglow,
Bm G
My world was gray with all the others,
A E
Until you came, you showed me colors,

Bm G
All I know is you stole my eyes,
A E
And was packaged to stone cause you put it down right,
Bm G
All I know is you pull me through,
